Attention - Miss Amy L. Bates, Asst.Curator

Gentlemen:

Your letter of November 14th has been received, as have also the Bulletins.

May I be prefectly frank and say because our library is a small one with a very limited number of readers, it seems to me you might more advisedly place this file of Bulletins where they would reach a larger circle. Our books relate only to coins and medals, and we have no material of a general nature.

Should you wish it, I will forward this file to another library.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

My dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of November 19th with reference to the set of our Bulletins recently sent you. I thought it possible that you might have a library that was somewhat general in connection with the library used in your work. I am enclosing 9¢ in stamps and would appreciate it very much if you will kindly address them back to us.

Very truly yours,

Amy L. Bates

Gentlemen:

We are enclosing an imprint of a coin recently brought in to us for identification. I hope I am not imposing upon you when I ask if you will be kind enough to identify it for us. We should appreciate this courtesy greatly, and are enclosing a stamped envelope for your reply.

Very truly yours,

Dear Madam:-

I have your letter of July 19th, together with the rubbing of a coin.

The coin was issued in Brazil during the period that country was under Portugal. It was originally an 80 Reis piece, and at a later date was restruck 40 Reis. These pieces are still very common and have no value.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
